1980-81

Individualism . . . As one of a crowd or one of a pair you take your place in the rank and file of humanity. You stand among many as an individual . . . unique, rare, and beautiful.

Camera, film, click, flash, 2 weeks, ?? picture, work, work, work, yearbook, — memories.

As you turn through the pages in your yearbook, you will see yourself and reflections of some of the greatest times of your life. A lot of work has been put into your yearbook.

Its life began in a yearbook meeting in September of 1980. All through the year, staff members collected ideas and pictures, and your book started to grow — not only physically, it grew love too. It matured and expanded, now it is as you see it, a fully developed yearbook.

We hope you will enjoy your yearbook as much as we enjoyed making it.

KODAK — for a good look — we owe you many thanks for our theme this year.

ENJOY!

Jim Reynolds Assumes Leadership of AFS Club

The AFS Club was very proud to have Yumi Sakai as their foreign exchange student this year. Yumi came from Japan and lived with Kim Fisher and her family throughout the school year.

The Club's activities included a Christmas party, selling Tupperware, and a haunted house.

Band Played at Assembly Hall

This year has proved to be another successful one for the Band. They began last summer with a marching band camp. The camp proved to be a success because the Band again won the Class D State Championship at I.S.U. and Class D at E.I.U. Most band members feel that the highlight of the marching season was to come within $\frac{1}{2}$ of a point of being one of ten finalists at the I.S.U. competition. That is the closest a class D band has ever come to making finals.

Each band member also participated in the solo and ensemble contest at Millikin University. The band traveled to Millikin once again to compete in the organizational contest.

Some of the upper class band members participated in the E.I.U. Honor Band. Also held this year was the S.V.C. Honor Band. Several of the students took part in this.

The pep band also did very well this year. They once again played on D-W night at Parkland, and they also played at the Assembly Hall for the Girls' State Tournament.

Congratulations to the band on a great year and good luck for next year!

Chorus Goes "Over the Rainbow"

The Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Karen Parrish, had a successful year regardless of its size. Performances were given at the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. The Swing Choir was also featured at these events.

Three members of the Chorus participated in the IMEA District Chorus on Nov. 15 at Crannert Center. Also chorus members participated in solo and ensemble contest held at Millikin University on March 7. Ten first place ratings were received.

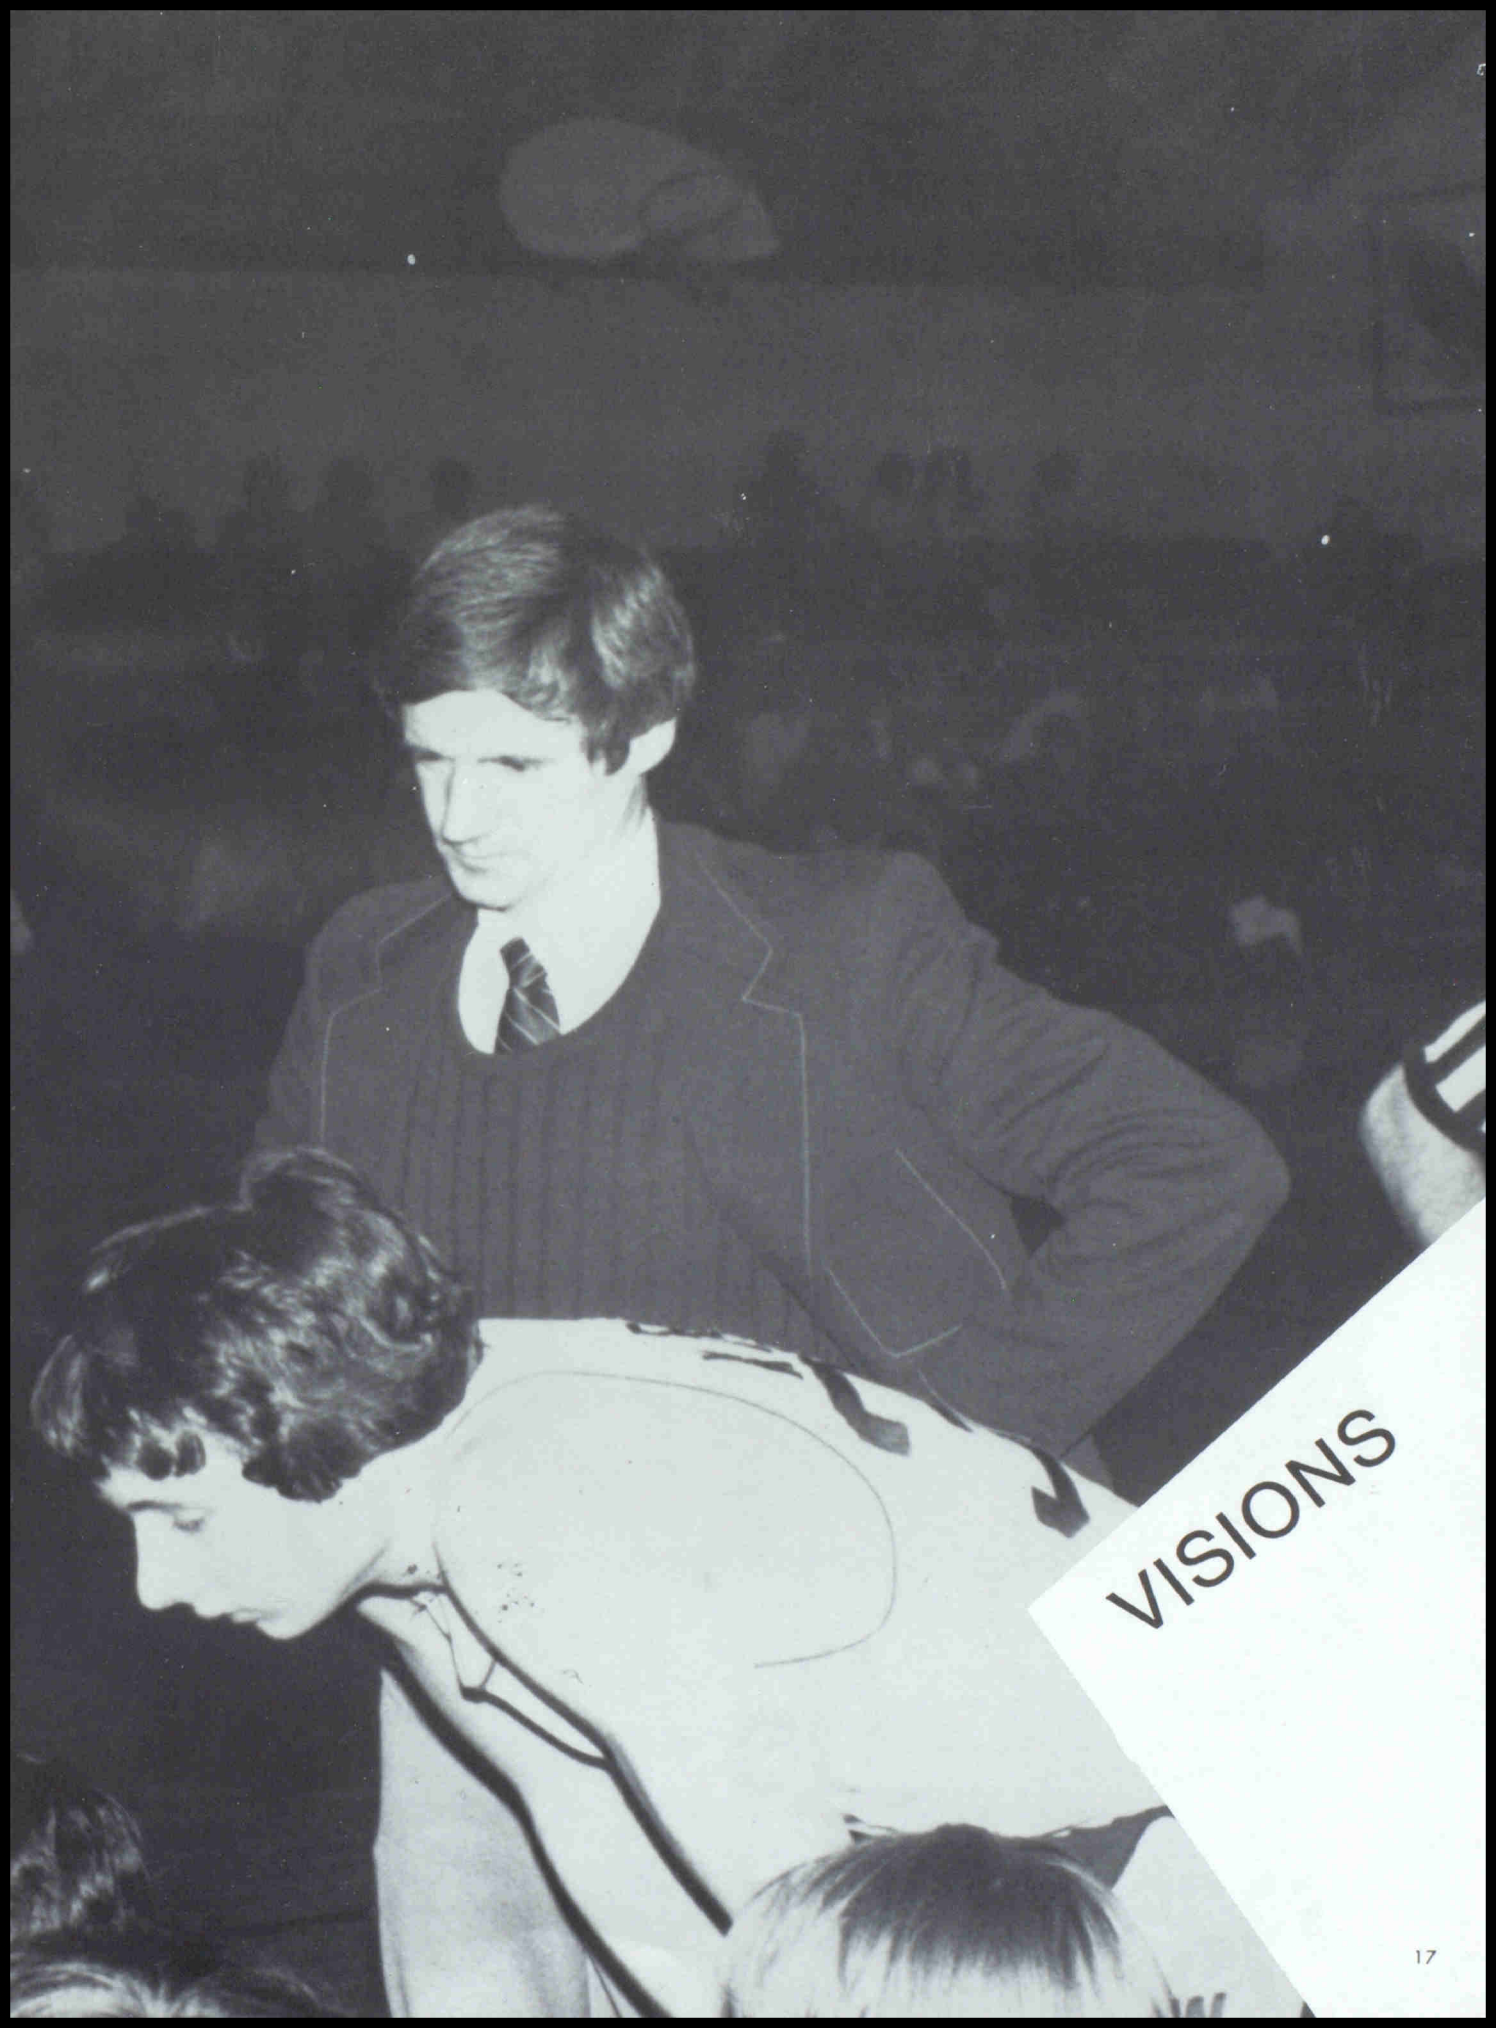

The Wizard of Oz was the musical presented on April 4. The audience was taken over the rainbow by Dorothy.

Determination and Hard

The Eagle's courted a small, young, inexperienced team which featured three seniors: Tom Borton, Phil Carter, and Wes Kingston.

Even though they suffered through 22 losses throughout the season, the Eagles gained valuable experience in teamwork and good sportsmanship when they defeated Wapella, the undefeated team in the Eagle Classic.

Although the Eagles' record was not very impressive, they showed real hustle and hard work in achieving the goals they set at the start of the season.

Girls Basketball Team Enjoys First Year of Competition

The 1980-81 Season of the first full year of competition for the Girls Basketball program was off to a slow start. While the season went on, the girls impressed many fans with their ability and determination. Having a record of 2 and 12, Coach Wenzel never gave up on his team and expressed how the Girls Basketball program looks very promising in the years to come.

Seniors Anxiously Await Graduation

President, Jim Reynolds; Vice-President, Mike Marcum; Secretary, Tracy Norton; Treasurer, Butch Carter; Student Council Rep., Mindy Scott; Sponsors: Mr. Frazier, Mrs. Blackburn, and Miss Tuttle

Our senior class has worked and played hard together. We have shared endless hours in each other's presence. This year we sold popcorn, got muddy at a truck wash, sold pop at each home ballgame, and played chef for two chicken dinners — all for a trip to Washington. We hope to make our trip to Washington meaningful as well as educational.

It was difficult for our class to accept many of the changes this year. However, we hope that succeeding classes will accept and uphold changes as well as we have done.

Upon graduation, we are sure to feel bewildered but yet ready to face reality.

As we push the big glass doors open for the last time on graduation, each of us will reflect our past four years at D-W with laughter and tears.

Lori Duncan and Tom Borton debate during the mock election.

Yumi Sakai, Our AFS Student From Japan

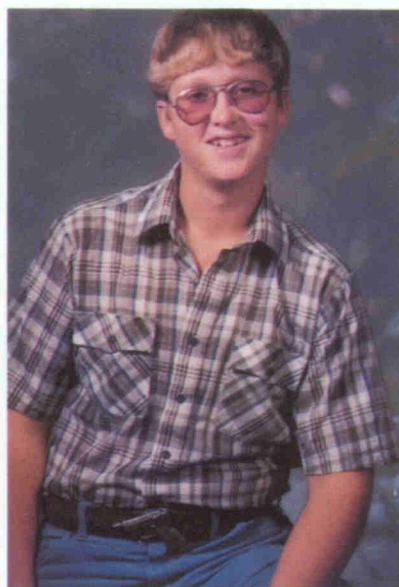

Kim Fisher and her family have been Yumi's family this school year. Yumi was active in volleyball, basketball, and participated in many other activities. When asked her impressions of Illinois, she said, "Endless field, beautiful sunsets, stars, the moon, and friendly people . . . these are what I like about America."

Homecoming week started off with Western Day, followed by Backwards Day, Slave Day, Roll 'Em Up Day and Maroon and Gray Day. Thursday night there was a pep rally and a bonfire held at the school.

The homecoming game's opponent was Fisher. The final score was 54-0, but the spirits were high as Saturday night came around.

Saturday night was highlighted by a disco light show called Music in Motion. Even though Grand March was delayed for a while, everyone else danced and listened to the music.

Homecoming theme was "We've Got Tonight." It was a night for Wes Kingston and Beth Reynolds to be crowned Homecoming King and Queen.

Anxiously Waiting

“Times of Your Life”

Good morning yesterday
You wake up and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find
The memories you left behind
Remember
Do you remember
The laughter and the tears
The shadows of misty yester years?
The good times and the bad you've seen
And all the others in between
Remember
Do you remember
The times of your life
Reach back for the joy and the sorrow
Put them away in your mind
For mem'ries are time that you borrow
To spend when you get to tomorrow
Here comes the setting sun,
The seasons are passing one by one
So

CANDIDS

gather moments while you may,

collect the dreams you dream today,
Remember.
